Honorable James M. Peck, U.S. Bankruptcy Judge
One Bowling Green, New York, NY 10004

Dear Sir:

This letter is in response to your notice of Lehman Brothers Holdings. When Lehman Bros. failed, I was the holder of 150,000 of their common shares. Since I am 91 years old,
I do not know what, if anything, I should do.

Please advise me.

Thank you.

Lois S. Strome

(my husband, deceased in 1996, was a lawyer specializing in Bankruptcy Law)
